Extract from the will of Mary Brandon dated the day of A.D. 1820 and proved at Philadelphia the 15th. March 1821–

Suplimt– Since making this my last will & Testament, I have in consideration, for the esteem I have for the Institution named by the name of St. Peters Church of the City of Philadelphia, seen proper to will & devise, to the said Institution for the benefit of the poor funds of said Institution, the sum of three hundred dollars, to be paid by my Executrix and executor, as soon as may be after the decease of my mother, & after the payment of the Legacy before devised to Kitty ann Ross, & in case of deficiency of my estate, as before mentioned, then and in that case my wish is, that this devise be paid, in the same proportion as above mentioned–

Dec. 7th. referred to Messrs. Binney & Meredith

---

Extract from the Will of Margaret Hand, dated 17th. June 1824, proved at Phil.a 13th. June 1825.

Item– Whereas I am entitled to the residue, of my late daughter Mary Brandon's property– It is my will, that if there should be any residue remaining, which I have a right to dispose of– I give the same in the manner following– to wit– To Mary Alexander, Mark Brandon Clark and ann Wyld Junior, each the sum of one hundred dollars, & should there still be any property remaining, I give one half of the same, to the Rector Church wardens & Vestry men of St. Peters Church in the City of Phila. for the benefit of the poor members of said Church, & the other half I give to the Second Presbyterian Church in the City of Dublin, for the benefit of the poor members of said Church—

Extracts from the wills of Mary Brandon, & Margaret Bland—